EDITION FIVE

It is 25 years since Priscilla Bradley first had the vision of elevating curtain hardware from the mundane to the status of high-end décor.

The Bradley Collection was born as a brand led by design and with a clear sense of purpose.

This dream of a perfect aesthetic has run in parallel with technical engineering excellence and an absolute commitment to quality, lending the brand rational as well as emotional appeal.

For a quarter of a century, The Bradley Collection has pursued its mission to create the world's finest curtain poles.

DESIGN

No component dominates another.
Each is designed as a complementary element which combines with another to create a harmonious whole.

"For me, design is everything. clarity of purpose and simplicity of line. purity of form, obsessive attention to detail. I strive for perfection."

Priscilla Bradley
